GARTNER 2021 INSIGHTS

When asked to rank technologies they're using in the next year: Digital workplace technologies to support work from home come out on top — AI & Machine Learning follow shortly after.

GARTNER 2021 INSIGHTS

Fifty-two percent of CIO's expect work from home to increase in 2021. The challenge going forward will be funding and rightsizing the appropriate assets to support a remote and hybrid workforce model.
